

Proclamation

City and County of San Francisco

WHEREAS, Evan Low is one of the most influential Asian Pacific Americans under the age of 30 and has worked tirelessly to eliminate the stereotypes regarding politics and to help other members of the Asian Pacific American population realize that politics has a great impact on their daily lives; and

WHEREAS, Evan Low has inspired many young people to take seriously and become involved in the decision-making process that occurs in government, and has bridged the gap between the older generations and the new; and

WHEREAS, Evan Low advocates recognition of cultural diversity and the best possible representation of the needs of the community, including minority populations, and the incorporation of Asian American history and contemporary Asian American issues into politics; and

WHEREAS, San Francisco commends Mr. Low's extensive community involvement, including his role as Santa Clara County Commissioner on Senior Care, Director of the Silicon Valley Asian Pacific American Leadership Institute at De Anza College, and Manager of Community Affairs for the Volunteer Center of Silicon Valley; now

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that I, Gavin Newsom, Mayor of the City and County of San Francisco, commend Evan Low for his dedicated and outstanding service to the people of San Francisco and the Bay Area and I join with family, friends and colleagues in wishing Evan a happy birthday, and do hereby proclaim June 5, 2006 as...

EVAN LOW DAY

In San Francisco!

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City and County of San Francisco to be affixed.

*Gavin Newsom
Mayor*